

The FCC should not promulgate any rule that will diminish the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law that restricts unsolicited calls from telemarketers. We are very pleased with the effects the Indiana law has had on the reduction of these unwanted calls to our home.